Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-17 and 19-21 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-28 and claims 1-114 of U.S. Patent No. 6,536,291 and 6,691,584 in view of Fu et al. (6,289,746) (hereinafter Fu). The patents mentioned above show all the features of the instant invention except for the controller for controlling the velocity of fluid in response to the velocity signal. Fu, teaches a controller (203) for controlling the velocity of fluid by adjusting a microvalve (202). It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a controller to control the fluid velocity as needed since such controlling is required for preventing over flow of the flowing medium.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Hurwitz et al. (5,064,603) and Staerzl (4,763,626) teach a flow controller for controlling the velocity of fluid in response to the flow velocity signal from the sensor.
